After the grand finale comes the encore.

So I will start by helping federal interests even more. [REDACTED] is in here saying that Walt Disney World is on land owned by the British Monarchy and its portions of revenue go to that royal family. Then how about the federally networked people in this courtroom triumphantly end that sensation so every last federal salary can be spared. Tax Walt Disney World at a lower rate than what the British Monarchy takes from the place.

That being said, "Biden asks for 2% federal salary pay raises" tells me how about I make yet another statement in court giving the public defender and prosecutor to this case my written permission to pick any two people in the federal probation department whose positions and salaries they would like to see completely erased. I give the public defender and prosecutor my written permission to make verbally open statements in court saying who specifically from the federal probation department they think this should be done too. The New York State Troopers had a hiring table at the Walden Galleria last I knew, so they will be fine. New York State Troopers helped my mother Janet McCaul out in 2022 when they suggested helping her getting Katie [REDACTED] arrested for grand theft auto for doing what she did to my cars. Federal probation lies about my personal nature right in the courtroom before Christmas when they've been face to face with me at multiple private residences with no issues. So I give the public defender and prosecutor my written permission to find another law in the books similar to the one that allowed them to take $5000 from the U.S. Marshals because the public defender and prosecutor assigned to this case deserve more than a 2% pay raise for themselves reallocated from the probation department. They may openly respond in court accordingly.

It takes international family court payment arrangements to help a Mexican family living in fear of yet another Saturday night bar/pub brawl from an American Muslim family, not a 15 year plea deal. It takes a taxed and health regulated brothel for a Muslim who pushes our food trays in this jail to legally pimp out his sister as opposed to doing it over social media. I am glad an anonymous inmate helped him with his current life battle against federal legal oppressions. No wonder that movie of John Adams going to the Netherlands portrayed that older Republic laughing at him since that is where Amsterdam's notoriety takes place. "Can't legally prove who is behind an electronic device" is a very basically understood concept these days so I am glad there was an anonymous jailhouse lawyer present to help undermine the very federal system that continues to steal precious days from his life for that other inmate who now looks like his 90 day right to a Speedy Trial expired. "Are you mentally ill" is one of the most degrading things to be asked by a pompous Ivy League alumna after being handcuffed and publicly humiliated all over the news after being kidnapped by a Deep State salary collector right at work before Christmas.

"Deep State". Very commonly used terminology these days. All Donald Trump appointed federal officials are absolutely expected to sympathize with the evolved perceptions of the disenfranchised grassroots who found themselves drafted into a combative feud with falsely perceived higher ranking government officials. Wars do not have winners and losers, they have settlements and lessons. In 2021 even state senator George Borrello talked with me about what he thought about them - Congressman Tom Reed. I maintain the right, I hope and believe, to have that same state senator subpoena'd right into this courtroom, otherwise he gets arrested and detained and brought in. Court documented evidence of me knowing him, tax proof of me being one of his former top donors before Andrew and Krystie from the Buffalo F.B.I. deceived both me and Olean Police by kidnapping me 2 years ago when I was on my way to work in Buffalo, and nobody else, at a time when I was trying to get my then neighbor [REDACTED] arrested. I was a disrespected homeowner and all levels of "just doing my job" tax subsidized public safety officials were being favorable towards conviction bar abusers. Reasonable suspicion to believe that the Deep State wants homeowners to be as unsafe as possible and hold them day after day as illegally convicted so federal credit unions confiscate their properties to pay Biden's suggested 2% federal pay raises. Maybe one day Liz Cheney humbles herself and finally endorses Trump 2024 because of issues like this. But anyways I digress. I may need to issue a written subpoena to George Borrello so I can have reliable testimonies to my character since federal probation and their cooperation with Katie's lies with the [REDACTED] Police is just as reliable as the alleged Minnesota attorney I never met who did this to me.

It's a Biblical sign my father couldn't sleep the night I was remanded before Christmas. This happened to me 2 years ago and all the sudden his wife gets her citizenship finally. He was donating to the food pantries who exclusively cater to illegal migrants in 2021 and he met his wife at Epcot long before she was a citizen. He knows where to find the undocumented. They moved into my grandmother's house in Allegany in 2016 and the local mosque came to visit. I don't know if he has documented himself as a Buffalo area voter yet but hopefully he sees now why we need Donald Trump back.

Liz Cheney lost her primacy because the Capitol Riots were cheered unlike the Despicable Korean and Vietnam War Veterans who were booed right on spot for horrifically dividing families in those respective countries in a similar way myself and Benjamin [REDACTED] Freedom To Assemble Constitutional rights were forcibly damned here in the era of convicted F.B.I. agents.

Wars do not have winners and losers, they have lessons and settlements, I have learned plenty of new things I wish I learned out in the disenfranchised ranks of society. "Cliff Ted" Blane Stewart called it on 60 Minutes and that it is, I hope federal officials have learned that emotions are a human rights issue that come out of the human soul for a reason. I think the disenfranchised and the Deep State ranks as we called them in the 2010s can work together in the second half of the 2020s. End the misunderstandings and false perceptions from everyone, even I admit to having had plenty of those myself.

I am not going to name out all the other credible people I could have subpoenaed into the courtroom to push away any further unwelcome claims by Katie [REDACTED] who I have taken on several road trips alone with, I am not a woman beater like Todd McMurray, the brother of Biden endorsed Congressional candidate from yesterday Nate McMurray, who I met at Niagara County Jail two painfully long years ago. Orders of protection expire after 5 years, I kindly finish this letter to the court by asking to help me alleviate the personal pains from the past with everyone in this case in less than 5 years, please and thank you. Brett is probably mad that I told him to get Moderna, Katie is still mad about Samani Corder, [Victim 1] doesn't need to lie about secretly liking Recons — Luke Wenke
