

We can watch Alice Baldwin impersonate Donald Trump on Saturday Night Live, enjoy ① ourselves, and celebrate the serious achievements of Trump's 2017-2021 accomplishments such as the First Step Act and the 2018 Sentencing Guidelines all at once. My letters to this court are the definition of having our cake and eating it at the same time. The Buffalo Federal Public Defender's Office, who gets its salaries through the prosecutor's office so I am told (private firms financially stand on their own two feet; equitable defense experiences be damned as a defendant's defense's livelihood be subjected to the whims of the prosecutor's office's budget being reallocated according to their opinions of the defense), is being forced off its rocker and out of its comfort zone as I send these to John Sinatra's Constitutionally defined "inferior court" while one person and/or multiple people forced into the opposition position against me out of envy continue to maliciously attack my mother Janet McCaul and Jeff Bish's new Salamanca Broad St. J&J's restaurant. On a side note, I believe somewhere in the Old Testament it says that mocking the guilty is a sin. Therefore it is my position quite frankly that someone, anyone, affiliated with this temporary case owes it to my mother and Jeff's restaurant to help them attain a federal small business grant of just a few thousand dollars to help them as a form of apology for the attacks waged on them and have the money sent immediately over to Republican county legislator Laurie Hunt of the Salamanca CCSE federal credit union.

Those two are in their 50s and the Covid years forced them out of their comfort zone and off their rocker to expand their career capabilities. I don't know what's stopping tax subsidized sensations such as Frank Passafiume, Fonda Kubiak, and the prosecutor (who continues to mumble his name into the microphone so my very competent mind can't hear it as I sit at the kids' table in the back of the court and he also rudely scolded me right to my face December 2023 in the lobby outside the court for his own personal so called professional liability reasons) can't do the same as my mother and Jeff and open a trinity private legal firm in Ellicottville since last I knew Cattaraugus County Democratic Chairman Frank Puglisi's friend John Nelson of Ellicottville's Nelson Law Firm shut his firm down during Covid to deejay in England instead. Frank, Fonda, and the incumbent prosecutor are presumably in their 50s like my mother and Jeff Bish so perhaps they may find personal satisfaction in their opening of the long-filmed 71 FPS private firm Ellicottville Southern can experience a ② career enhancement similar to younger private firm owners such as [Victim 1] or Barry Covert. Vilardo's defendant Richard Greer (who has no legitimate witnesses to subpoena and was unconstitutionally forced to accept exemption from his Speedy Trial Rights while, illegally, not being drug or alcohol tested upon arrival at Orleans County Jail December 2023) recently hired a younger new private firm owner who charges a lower retaining fee than Barry Covert's immovable fees call for. Maybe someone with internet will contact <http://www.uscourts.gov/judges-judgeships/judicial-conduct-disability> and get Vilardo investigated as to why Richard Greer has been detained for this long with no legitimate court movements on his case?

The incumbent prosecutor's December 2023 face to face treatment towards me is forgivable because my very competent mind remembers seeing telling probation officers [redacted] and his heavily tax subsidized overpaid supervisor (likely diagnosed with male pattern baldness by Dr. Rutter) to sit down and only speak when spoken to in court as early as January 2024 after that same incumbent prosecutor complained through audibly heard statements in court about 2024 federal budget cuts. [Probation officer] has been face to face with me in my own self-financed private house with his black female coworker (pre and post 2023 affirmative action abolition), he has seen me in the green Skyy Homes van out in public with no problem Alexander Anzalone and David Rudloff absolutely competently remember me working in briefly in 2023, but then [probation officer] cooperated with Katie [redacted] September 2023 lies to the [redacted] NY police as well as October 2023 lies telling me "came up to Buffalo for a urine test" that never happened before he ordered his tax subsidized probation subordinates to jam me into Cattaraugus County Jail over letters with a map of the United States that are no longer legally valid anymore anyways. So why does [redacted] continue to lie about my character in court as recently as July 30th, 2024 claiming "probation has concerns" with no legitimate explanation as to why? Should the tax subsidized probation office be audited to find out who it's paying to work from a laptop at home in [redacted] NY to do their legally-likely-to-be forged government documentation I'm not even sure the defense and the prosecuting attorneys have even seen for themselves? My former stepfather [redacted] made it all the way through the NY State Trooper Recruitment process. I don't think probation employees find more career satisfaction in standing at NY State Trooper recruitment tables at the Walden Galleria mall my very competent mind recalls seeing? NY State Troopers report to Katie [redacted]'s house as recent as 2022 as it is so hypothetically defunded and former federal probation employees wouldn't have to lose contact with old colleagues such as the obvious culprit with red hair at play here.

Thank you to the Orleans County Jail staff and nobody else for finally moving me out of that miserable mental health rights-violating private room I was in for three months and back to the section of the jail I was in before [enemy inmate] of Baltimore MD rudely came in and thrust his make believe alpha status around. Officer Martin did a fine job escorting me a month ago to my face to face attorney client privilege visit with Frank Passafiume and Fonda Kubiak. They asked me questions about this jail but they can't tell Officer Martin how to do his job here. In fact it was the opposite; Frank and Fonda answered to the whims of Officer Martin escorting them out the door they came in so they could go back to their office in Buffalo. I'm sure the B.O.P. transfer center CCA in Youngstown, OH would be more than happy to do the same to absolutely any attorney who showed up ordering CCA staff what to do with unsentenced inmates with inferior court sponsored paperwork likely typed up by Katie [redacted].

Awful lot of harsh words and tensions exchanged all year on many fronts. Waiving all further legal road blocks was an option way back in January 2024? It wasn't hard for the Cattaraugus and Chautauque County Libertarian parties pre-Covid to file the joint paperwork needed for Albany NY authorities to place now-state senator George Borrello on the Libertarian line on the ballot in 2019 (George bought me sushi at Oishi in Olean as well as 24/7 cafe food at the Seneca Allegheeny Casino for my mother Janet McCaul and I). So in other words I don't know what's stopping this inferior court from doing the obvious legal step needed to get me to a point where I am instead getting U.S. Dist. Ct. Labor agreements worked up in this same court ④ getting a chain franchise hotel built in Salamanca for my mother to pay her back for paying every dollar of my bills these last 2.5 grueling years. The father of my maternal half brother [redacted] of Randolph NY (digital footprint evidence of his former Facebook friends studies with Katie [redacted])'s employer Sydnie Watt (owns M&M's Junction off Exit 23 on I-86) absolutely has the labor force under her belt to get such a thing built in the federally legally complex city of Salamanca. I used to work at M&M's Junction ten years ago with [redacted] with Matt Kuhaneck as Assistant Manager working under Sydnie Watt the Seneca Nation of Indians member. My brother [redacted]'s father Duane just never left the place.

Treat others how you want to be treated. I won't be arrogantly calling any of you incompetent on paper or face to face either. I will Plead The Fifth and use my right to remain silent with anymore likely potential future court appointed psychiatrists who pay stay at home typists to do their paperwork. No wonder Republicans are always willing to let the federal budget default.

Waiving goodbye for now over his letter until next time,
 - Luke Marshall Wenke

PS - Who was Counterman v. Colorado 600 U.S. 66 U.S. Supreme Court lawyer?
 I don't have internet to check.

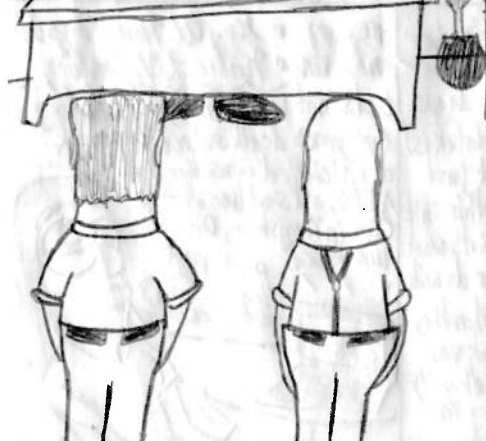

John Sinatra's Inferior Court

Don't be a triggered libtard, that's what the Constitution calls his court...
SUNDAY FUNNIES SPECIAL

3: Wow what a great idea! Why didn't I think about that one? Maybe I should listen to all those WGRZ stories on me and stop yelling at people over email all day

6: Hi I'm Freddy Fredo Feltucini and I am a nar of the mill federal lawyer in the Buffalo NY area. We are all related to each other and every one of the federal judges too. I just happen to be Stave Pigen and the Shooter's lawyer. What do you two do?

2: Hi I'm Carl Paladino. I fuck back in 2010, I'm mad as hell. This time around though it's because I got a very serious legal issue I don't know what to do about. It took me like 9 fucking years to figure out how to beat the Buffalo School Board in U.S. Appeals Court so yeah what the actual fuck does a losing ass of a motherfucker of a Throwback Thuesday 2010 candidate for Governor like me know about anything like this?

4: (Head Sizes legally likely not to scale)

Say [redacted] what's a digital footprint anyhow?

Beats the shit out of me. Looks like we're just a bunch of Boomers, Carl.

7: Wow did you say the Tops Supermarket Shooter? Here I thought that was all a fake news hoax meant to make us all vote Democrat. The Tops Supermarket Shooter is every white person's secret hero. All these black people were probably just Byron Bunn's relatives. Also yeah I know Stave Pigen. I used to call him a libtard right to his face. I can't wait for Donald Trump to make me U.S. Ambassador to Brazil so we can manufacture child sized sex robots for him in the Amazon. Hi I'm Carl Paladino. Carl's shaper and I approve this message. Here's my legal issue on your desk.

2: Portville NY. Court documented evidence of me fucking a 15 year old named [redacted] when I was 56. Digital footprint evidence of dick pics I used to send Katie [redacted] in 2014. I'm Luke Wenke's first cousin twice removed. We are all on face to face terms with Carl over there in Box 1 as well as his douchebag friend Rus Thompson.

5: Hey look fell we made it to the big city lawyer's office!

No shit Carl!

Word around these parts is there's a douchebag cop with a sticked back Miami Vice hairstyle who gives out littering tickets left and right.

8: Jesus Joseph and Mary you were going 74 in a 65 mph zone! It's a speeding ticket! Must be Ellicott Development had to cut your private limo budget during Covid and you forgot how to drive yourself. Hopefully our very own Dr. Rutter doesn't diagnose you with Alzheimers for forgetting how to drive on your own. Since he fucking would, Let me call up one of my relatives who's a judge and ask what to do. We're all related. Both a line conflict of interest traits.
